The moment a customer reports anything, tap the matching button. The Code timescale starts automatically — 30 days to put right a snag or defect, the 5/10/30/56-day complaints timetable, urgent flagging for emergencies. The Code

One line, optional photo, ten seconds. Choices and paid extras, changes (for a major one: call the customer first, send the drafted notice, and the 14-day window runs from receipt), delays, build updates, trade visits — attended, no access, or turned away — and emails with the customer, all from this one button.

Emails with the customer

The screenshot shows the 'Plots' app interface. At the top, there's a header with a back arrow, the word 'Plots', and two circular icons (a question mark and a gear). Below the header, there are three email status cards:

- Path to Resolution letter: Done 19 Aug 2026, with a green checkmark icon.
- Complaint Assessment and Response letter: Due 11 Sep 2026 · 2 days overdue, with a red 'Draft' button.
- Eight-Week Letter: Due 7 Oct 2026 · due in 24 days, with a red 'Draft' button.

Below these cards are four buttons: 'Close complaint' (red), 'Add a note' (grey), 'Remind me' (grey), and 'Closure letter' (grey).

A red rounded rectangle highlights the 'CORRESPONDENCE 2' section. Below this, there are two email entries in a timeline:

- TO CUSTOMER 2 Sep 2026: Subject 'Re: damp patch — still there'. Body: 'Thanks Ali. I have asked our damp specialist to attend and will confirm a date by Friday. We will also check the external pointing while they are on site.'
- FROM CUSTOMER 1 Sep 2026: Subject 'Re: damp patch — still there'. Body: 'Morning — the damp patch in the main bedroom is no better after the last visit. It looks worse after the rain at the weekend. Can someone come and look again please? Ali'

At the bottom, there's a navigation bar with three icons: a house (Plots), a question mark (Guide), and an open book (The Code). Below the navigation bar, the text 'DOCUMENT CHECKLIST 7/13' is visible.

Pick Email under the same button and paste an email to or from the customer — with the date it was actually sent — and it joins the timeline and the export, so the evidence trail is complete. On Android you can share an email straight from your mail app into the right plot.
